Collective Worship

Our value this half term is Truthfulness.

In Open the Book today we heard a story that Jesus told to explain why he was concerned about everyone, not just people who obeyed the law. In the story, there was a shepherd who had a flock of one hundred sheep. He knew them all very well and used to count them each day. One day he counted them and found that there were only ninety-nine. Instead of ignoring the missing one, he went to look for it and, when he found it, celebrated with friends. Jesus told the people that God cares for everyone, and whenever someone does something wrong, he still loves them and wants them to turn back and follow him. One of the things that this story teaches us is that although we may feel one among many people at school, the people who work here know us very well and are concerned about us all.
