OFSTED

A huge well done and congratulations to all of our staff and children for showing the Ofsted inspection team that we are a GOOD school. Hopefully you have had a chance to read the report which was sent out yesterday. If not it is available under the Ofsted tab on our website.

NEXT WEEK

It's very busy next week with a number of exciting things happening across both sites. Check out the diary dates box and the PTA section overleaf for information about each event. We have also sent home separate information sheets giving specific details about our book fair and what we are doing to take part in National Sport Week.

RETURNING FORMS

We are awaiting reply slips for the following visits:

- Year 2 medical forms for How Hill

If they could be returned as soon as possible it would be appreciated. Thank you.

Collective Worship

Our value this half term is Compassion.

In Open the Book today we heard the story from the Old Testament about Elkanah, who had two wives, Hannah and Peninnah. Peninnah had many children but Hannah had none. Peninnah was jealous of Hannah because Samuel loved her more. Hannah wished she had at least one child. She prayed to God in the temple and Eli, a priest, saw her. Eli thought she was drunk but Hannah told him that she wasn't but that she had been praying to God to ask for a child. She promised God that if she had a son, she would give him to the temple to serve God in it. Eventually, Hannah did have a child and, when he was old enough, she took him to the temple and he lived there. She visited him each year. God knew that it had been very hard for her to leave Samuel in the temple and she had more children after that. One of the things the story can teach us is that if we keep our promises, we may be rewarded.

Congratulations

Well done to the following children for being awarded a celebration certificate this week:
