Reception visit to Wroxham Barns

Reception had a brilliant first day back to school with a trip to the farm at Wroxham Barns. We collected eggs, saw lots of farm animals and even fed lambs and ducks, and had a cuddle with some incredibly cute chicks and guinea pigs. We were so appreciative to all the adults who volunteered to come along to help, and we are sure the children learned lots from this invaluable first-hand experience. We were all extremely impressed by the way in which all of the children behaved so well on their first visit out, they were a credit to the school and you will all no doubt be rightly proud of them too. Some of the comments the children made were, "Can we go to Wroxham Barns again?" (Maddison), "'I like the baby lambs" (Erin), "I liked feeding the baby lambs." (Deigun), "I liked it when I gave the guinea pigs a stroke." (Riley), "I liked holding the chick and feeding the lambs!" (Poppy B), "I liked feeding the swan with bread." (Andrew), "I liked holding the guinea pigs and holding a chick." (Ruby R), "I liked the lambs." (Elena), "I liked playing in the soft play area." (Ollie) and, "The best thing about Wroxham Barns was feeding the sheep!" (Poppy E). A wonderful day was had by all.

Finnbar's Force Charity Day: Friday 3rd May

Next Friday we will be holding a bake sale and non-uniform day to help raise money for the Finnbar's Force charity. The theme is Star Wars so we would like the children to try and come dressed in this theme and are looking for donations of cakes, biscuits and buns which we can sell after school that day. If your child would prefer to come dressed in non-uniform, that is, of course, fine. All children coming to school in non-uniform on this day will be asked to give a donation of £1 towards the charity.

Lego vouchers

The Lego vouchers scheme through the EDP and Evening News is ending very soon. Please hand in any vouchers you have to either office as soon as possible. Thank you.

How Hill Payments

Final payments for the Y2 How Hill residential are now due. Please see Mrs Richardson in the office to arrange payment as soon as possible if you have an outstanding balance.

Well done to the following children who have attended school every day this academic year so far:

Jackson Whiting, Poppy Bentley, Alfie Edridge, Ollie Elms, Tobias Foulger, Lyla Hammond, Imogen Jones, Erin Palmer, Isabella Casanova, Kian Hills-Radcliffe, Harry Oakley, Elijah Terry, Charlie Whittred, Harrison Kemp, Liberty Thompson, Chloe Moulton, Freddie Silvester, Sky Cooper, James Hawkins, Tamika Murray, Oliver Ward, Ella Green, Sophie Keeble, Ruby Lacey, Jasmine Razzell, Poppi-Honey Wagstaff, Charles Daniels, Chantelle De'Ath, George Henery, Jack Keeble, Siana Matthewson, Abbie Riches, Max Sheehy and Jamie Sutton.

Collective Worship

Our value this half term is Trust.

Today, in Open the Book, the children heard the final part of the Easter story, Jesus' resurrection.

They were reminded of the reasons behind Jesus' crucifixion and watched as an angel reassured Mary and her companions that Jesus was alive and well. This was understandably a confusing concept for Mary to understand but the appearance of Jesus was all Mary needed for her to believe.

Later, the children were encouraged to consider what Jesus would be to us now if he hadn't have arisen from the dead. What do you think?
