News this week:

Read all about it!!

Exciting times are planned for our school library at Mill Lane... With the support of our PTA, we are planning to update and revamp our library. We will be auditing our book stock, buying some new books and introducing some reading themed activities and competitions. Why? Because reading is at the heart of education. We are aiming to promote and encourage a life-long love of reading. There is so much amazing children's literature just waiting to be discovered.

However, we need your help! The PTA have organised a sponsored "Book Bounce" to take place next Wednesday 12th June in school. Please encourage your children to collect sponsorship, every little helps! All money raised will go towards updating our books on both sites. The School Council will be involved in choosing the books we buy.

During the week beginning Monday 24th June we will be hosting a book fair in school. The children will come home on Monday 24th June with a "wish list" of books. The fair will be open every day after school. Please do come along and browse the books with your child. The school receives commission for every book sold. During the week, the children will have the opportunity to take part in some reading themed competitions to win some vouchers to spend at the book fair. Watch this space for further updates...

Collective Worship

Our value this half term is Courage

In Open the Book today we learnt the story of how Jesus fed the five thousand. We heard how one boy asked Jesus to share the small picnic of bread and fish that he had with everybody in the group, which was many. Jesus' friends could not see how the food could be shared by so many but Jesus was confident that everyone would be fed. At the end of the picnic, every last person had a full tummy thanks to the generosity of one little boy.

This story was particularly relevant after Miss Blyth's and Miss Anatola's trip to Africa last week. Here, they saw the startling poverty that many millions of people have to suffer every day of their lives. Maybe, if we could all share a little of what we have, we could all begin to make a difference to people that are less fortunate than ourselves.
