GoGoHares' Reading Week

Thanks to the efforts of staff, parents and children we have successfully managed to complete all the activities we had planned for reading week in spite of the fact that the snowy weather closed the school for three of those days! We hope the children enjoyed the varied events, activities and visitors we had over the past two weeks. Congratulations to Hannah Lindsay whose winning hare design is currently being sketched out onto our leveret and will be painted by selected children from our Mill Lane site over the next couple of weeks. We will keep you updated with pictures on our facebook page. Unfortunately the Holt Road Hare Exhibition has been postponed due to the fact that the painting of the hares has moved and so the hares won't be ready for next Friday. We will let parents know a new date once we have confirmation of when they will be ready.

CSF Fundraiser day

Thank you to everyone who sent in money for their child to dress in green and yellow today and to those parents who donated cakes/buns for us to sell. On Monday Mill Lane will be finding out which children will be shadowing a teacher for the day.

Good manners

We had a lovely phone call from High Altitude earlier this week to say that they had had a lot of our pupils visit them over the snow days. They phoned us to tell us that they were really impressed with the children's lovely manners. Well done to those children for representing our school and their parents so well. You are a credit to the school!

Collective Worship

Our value this half term is Wisdom. In today's Open the Book we heard how people remember Jesus by sharing in eating bread and wine. On the night before Jesus died, he gave bread and wine to his disciples and told them to eat the bread and drink the wine and to remember him whenever they did so. Over two thousand years later, people still eat bread and drink wine to remember Jesus. This has several names: Mass, Communion, The Lord's Supper, Eucharist. Jesus told his disciples to remember him and we can also remember people. Perhaps these are our friends who have moved away.

GoGoHares 2018 is presented by Break charity in partnership with Wild in Art
