

People who help us

Week beginning 2nd November 2020

This week in Phonics...

New sounds - f, ff, l, ll, ss.

Blending and segmenting VC and CVC words

Words of the week: was, my, you, like

This week in maths...

We are developing our use and knowledge of positional language.

Play based learning opportunities...

To draw pictures of people who help you at home and write add a label, e.g. mum, dad.

To sort the people who help us, their vehicles and equipment into groups.

To investigate what you and your friends would like to be when you grow up- police officer, doctor, nurse, vet, firefighter.

To sort the objects/ picture clues into who they belong to, e.g. fire fighter, police officer, teacher, vet.

To junk model an emergency vehicle and add my name.

To explore the dressing up costumes and props, taking on the role of someone who helps people.

To paint a picture of someone who helps me.

Things to do at home...

Practise recognising the new sounds in your books at home together.

Practise recognising the new words of the week.

Books to explore...

Cops and robbers

Awesome engines: emergency!

Jobs people do

Police officers on patrol

Mog at the vet

Theme words...

Police, ambulance, doctor, nurse, fire fighter, teacher, dentist, crossing patrol, lifeguard.

Philosophy

Would you rather be a or a?

Christian Distinctivness

We say a prayer before lunch each day, and in collective worship we will be exploring the idea of Trust.

Nebula
where stars are born

This week's homework task...

Draw a picture of someone who helps you and add your name. Don't forget to upload your learning onto Tapestry by the end of the week.