

EACH Art Calendar Competition 2017

Sharing memories for East Anglia's Children's Hospices

If you are interested in entering the Art Calendar Competition and supporting EACH, there are some helpful guidelines below as well as the entry forms that need to accompany your art work. For full terms and conditions please visit our website.

How to enter:

- Read the rules and instructions very carefully.
- Simple methods of presentation should be considered, although not essential, and work is best kept flat rather than rolled.
- Entry's should be no larger than A4.
- Complete a separate entry form for each piece of artwork entered. This is essential for sorting purposes, particularly if work is to be returned.
- Complete a consent form for each entry (to be completed by a parent or legal guardian).
- Make absolutely sure that the name of each child is written very clearly and spelt correctly as no amendments will be made at a later stage.
- Work to be returned must be clearly marked as such. No work will be returned unless a large first class stamped self addressed A4 envelope has been enclosed. Alternatively, work may be collected in person from your local fundraising office between 1st September and 23rd December 2017.
- Make sure to post your entries in plenty of time. Send them by registered post to EACH Calendar Art Competition, 42 High Street, Milton, Cambridge, CB24 6DF. Or alternatively contact your local fundraising team to arrange collection.
