Theme: The Great Fire of London

Oh no! Its 1666 and London is on fire! We have received a news alert that a fire started in Pudding Lane Bakery. What happened that day? How did the fire start? Was anyone involved? What happened after the fire?

English:

Year 1 – We will continue to be story writers. We will plan our stories and then begin to write them. The children will be learning how to use capital letters and punctuation.

Year 2 – We will be continuing to explore descriptive writing. We will be using our senses and expanded noun phrases to add extra detail to our writing.

Maths

Year 1 – We will be exploring how to use a number line to solve subtraction number sentences.

Year 2 – We will be starting to look at measure, focussing on 'cm'. We will be learning how to measure accurately and compare the length of different objects.

Phonics:

Mrs Lenton	Suffix 'ing'
Miss Gilbert	Reviewing phase 3 phonics
Miss Anderson Miss McIntyre	Alternative pronunciations
Mrs Genc	Alternative graphemes

Topic Learning:

In History we will continue to explore how the Great Fire of London started. We will be making our own houses and exploring how the fire spread.

In Art we will continue to learn about the artist Jackson Pollock. We will continue to explore his abstract artwork and create some of our own.

Book Box:

When reading at home see if you can spot nouns, adjectives and verbs. Write a list of what you find and share it with your class teacher.

Can you help?

Do you have any more cereal boxes? Next week we will be building houses as part of our Great Fire of London project.

This week's Philosophy Question:

"If you could have one superpower, what would it be and why? " Discuss.

Homework:

We are revisiting some spellings that we have already sent home to make sure we are confident in spellings these in our writing.

Spellings

Year One spellings:
1. Are
2. All
3. We

Year Two spellings:
1. Fast
2. Last
3. Past

Please practice spellings at home in the purple homework book and make sure the book is returned to school.

The Collective Worship theme this term is Trust.
