Summer Holiday Extreme Reading Competition: update!

Sorry for any confusion caused on last week's newsletter. The winners of the extreme reading competition were Nicholas Barke, Billy Hall, Cole Manley and Luke Owen. As explained last week, all four boys will be going to the Norfolk Children's Book Centre with Miss Anatola to choose a new book for their class. To see their winning entries see our Facebook page.

Horsford Recreational Play Area

The Horsford PCSO (Police Community Support Officer) will be making additional visits to the 'rec' over the next few weeks after reports that small canisters have been found on the ground near the new play area. It is believed the canisters may contain laughing gas (or hippy crack) which contains nitrous oxide and can be harmful to children. We have been asked to make parents of young children aware of this so they can keep an extra eye out for their children when they are playing at the park.

Collective Worship

Diocesan Prayer Pilgrimage

Our children at Holt Road were visited by a special guest for Collective Worship on Thursday this week. Reverend Margaret had arranged for the Bishop of Lynn, Bishop Jonathan Meyrick to visit our school as part of the Norwich Diocesan Prayer Pilgrimage. The children learnt that a pilgrimage means a journey with a purpose. The Bishop asked them to share their ideas of an important journey. Some suggested coming to school, going to work, going to their grandparents' house and even the journey to the Chinese takeaway! The children were also thrilled to meet Hope, a guide dog, who was helping Reverend Simon Stokes who was also on the pilgrimage. The children learned that Hope the dog guides him, just like Jesus guides Christians.
