Welcome

Welcome to the October half term holidays Tots2Teens brochure with a wide range of activities to keep young people entertained during the school holidays.

We welcome applications from all our communities. If you require any special assistance please call us to discuss.

We offer a 50% reduction on all activities for Broadland households claiming Council Tax reduction, Housing Benefit or having housing costs met through Universal Credit.

Payment must be made by credit or debit card at the time of booking. All fees are non-refundable, unless we are able to fill the space.

Children's University

Young people are able to collect stamps towards their Children's University learning passports at some of our sessions. Look out for the logo. To find out more about Children's University please visit www.childrensuniversity.co.uk

Learning passports can currently be obtained from all libraries and some schools in Norfolk. There are over 125 activity providers set up across Norfolk where young people can take part in activities and earn stamps. Young people can graduate once they have reached certain milestones of learning hours.

If you wish your child to attend and leave an activity without an adult, the council will require written permission from the parent/carer stating this intention before the date of the activity which the child will attend.

Please note children may only be registered from 10 minutes before the start of the session.

Broadland District Council holiday activities follow guidance for out-of-school childcare. All staff have an enhanced Disclosure & Barring Service check. If you would like to inspect our Policy and Procedures document please ask a member of staff.

Lost property

Lost property from the Summer holidays –please contact us to arrange collection. Any lost property not claimed before Friday 20th October 2017 will be disposed of.

If you would like this information in a different format, such as large print, audio, Braille or in a different language please call us on (01603) 431133 and we will do our best to help.

WILDLIFE ZONES

In partnership with the Norfolk Wildlife Trust (NWT)

Mammal morning

Saturday 14th October, 10.30am – 12.30pm

Cost: £6 (one accompanying adult per family free, additional adults will be charged £6).

Mammals really are marvellous. Some mammals are adapted for life at sea, others on land. Some species such as otters live near river banks, squirrels in trees, mice and voles underground. Join us as we find out who is waiting to be released from our small mammal traps.

Meet at NWT Hickling Broad, Stubb Road, NR12 0BW

Majestic marsh harriers

Saturday 11th November,
10.30am – 12.30pm

Cost: £6 (one free accompanying adult per family, additional adults will be charged £6).

We are lucky to live in a county where marsh harriers can be found. The largest harrier is now doing well but what has happened to this beautiful bird in the past? Hear about the marsh harrier's history and get to know more about this majestic bird.

Meet at
NWT Cley
Marshes,
NR25 7SA

Nature navigation

Saturday 9th December, 10.30am –
12.30pm

Venue: NWT Hickling Broad, Stubb
Road, NR12 0BN

Cost: £6 (one free accompanying adult per family, additional adults will be charged £6).

Navigate the reserve using nature's clues and explore the area like never before. You'll need to work as a family to crack the clues and find your way to fulfil your quest.

To book, call the booking line, 01603 430525. For information about NWT's holiday activities, please look at their website www.norfolkwildlifetrust.org.uk or call 01603 625540.

NORWICH PLAYHOUSE

Subsidised theatre tickets

The Gruffalo

Friday 20th October, 1pm

Tickets: £8.50 (usually £11.50)

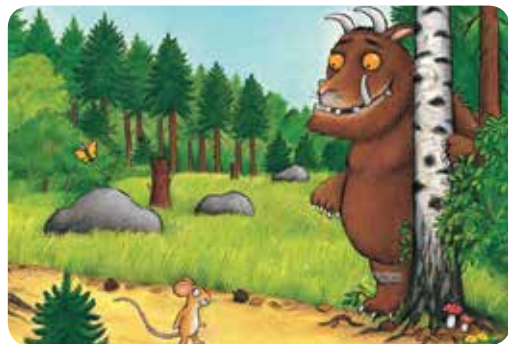

A mouse took a stroll through the deep dark wood...

Join Mouse on a daring adventure through the deep, dark wood in Tall Stories' magical, musical adaptation of the classic picture book by Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler. Searching for hazelnuts, Mouse meets the cunning Fox, the eccentric old Owl and the party mad Snake. Will the story of the terrifying Gruffalo save Mouse from ending up as dinner for these hungry woodland creatures? After all, there's no such thing as a Gruffalo – is there?

Songs, laughs and scary fun for children aged 3 and up and their grown-ups, in the much-loved show that's toured Britain and the world.

Suggested for age 3+

Running time: 55 minutes straight

So you think you know about dinosaurs?

Monday 23rd October, 2pm

Tickets: £8 (usually £10)

Did dinosaurs eat their own families? Was every Tyrannosaurus a fearsome carnivore? Why did Allosaurus headbutt its prey to death?

Come and test your knowledge against Ben Garrod (the TV scientist in the BBC's Attenborough and the Giant Dinosaur). With the help of TV film footage and photos of his own paleontological dinosaur digs, he will tell you everything you ever wanted to know about dinosaurs - and more.

This is an interactive show where children will be given the chance to ask questions and show off their dinosaur knowledge to the audience. Ben's assistant will roam the auditorium with a microphone and take questions from as many children as possible.

Using film footage from the BBC's Planet Dinosaur, Ben will talk about the deadliest predators that ever roamed the planet and the ones that, 65 million years ago, would have walked right where they are sitting now! This event is part of Norwich Science Festival.

Suggested for age 5+

Running time: 2 hours including interval

The tiger who came to tea

Saturday 25th November, 1.30pm

Tickets: £9 (usually £12)

A musical play adapted and directed by David Wood, based on the book by Judith Kerr.

The doorbell rings just as Sophie and her mummy are sitting down to tea. Who could it possibly be? What they certainly don't expect to see at the door is a big, stripy tiger!

Following a smash-hit West End season, the tea-guzzling tiger is back on the road in this delightful family show; packed with oodles of magic, sing-a-long songs and clumsy chaos! A stunning stage adaptation of the classic tale of teatime mayhem, expect to be surprised!

David Wood OBE is undisputedly the country's leading writer and director of plays and musicals for children. His many successes include The Gingerbread Man, BFG, The Witches, Meg and Mog, Spot and Babe the Sheep Pig.

Suggested for age 3+

Running time: 55 minutes straight

Performances at Norwich Playhouse, 42 – 58 St George's Street, Norwich, NR3 1AB.
