

Theme: Once Upon a Picnic

A letter came to say that some houses have been blown down in Horsford. Who did it? Year Two need to find out!

English:

This week, we are learning about writing instructions.

We are looking at writing instructions to make some recipes for our fairy tale Picnic.

Maths:

This week, we are learning about 3D shapes.

We will be naming and recognising 3D shapes and their properties such as: vertices, edges and faces.

Phonics:

Mr Watson	Words ending in er
Miss Turley	Plural words
Miss Anderson	Revision - sentence writing
Mrs Nolan and Mrs Genc	Words ending in ed

Theme:

This week is Reading Week and we are looking at lots of different activities relating to

The BFG.

Book Box:

Share a Roald Dahl story with a grown up. If you don't have one of his stories, you can find his marvellous poems online.

Can you help?

We hope to see you during our Reading Café on Thursday.

For our café we are looking for contributions of wool and paper plates.

This week's Philosophy Question:

BFG: Was it a good thing that the BFG took Sophie?

What do you think at home?

Year 2 Homework:

List the things you need for your outfit on non-school uniform day.
