

Theme: Once Upon a Picnic

A letter came to say that some houses have been blown down in Horsford. Who did it? Year Two need to find out!

English:

This week, we are learning about fairy tales.

We are practising writing nouns in a sentence.

Maths:

This week, we are learning about place value.

We are showing how many tens and units are in a number.

Phonics:

Mr Watson	Using -ed for past tense
Miss Turley	oo families as in hoop
Miss Anderson	Adjacent consonants
Mrs Nolan and Mrs Genc	ai families as in rain

Theme:

This week we are doing music and art.

We are learning how to use untuned instruments to represent different characters.

We are learning to make collage masks to represent a character.

Book Box:

Can you read some fairy tales at home?

Can you help?

Do you have any interesting textiles or small craft pieces that can be used to make masks of fairy tale characters?

This week's Philosophy Question:

"Would you have forgiven the big, bad pig like the wolves did in your story?"

What do you think at home?

Year 2 Homework:

Can you write a book review of one of your favourite fairy tales?

They can go on the wall in the reading area in your classroom.

